

“‘My food,’ said Jesus, ‘is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to finish His work.’”
– John 4:34

“I have testimony weightier than that of John. For the very work that the Father has given Me to finish, and which I am doing, testifies that the Father has sent Me.” – John 5:36

“I have brought You glory on earth by completing the work You gave Me to do.” – John 17:4

“He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not.” – Isaiah 53:3

“And [Jesus] said, ‘The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and He must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.’” – Luke 9:22

“As the time approached for Him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem.” – Luke 9:51

“Do not bring anything with a defect, because it will not be accepted on your behalf.”
– Leviticus 22:20

“The goat will carry on itself all their sins to a solitary place; and the man shall release it in the desert.” – Leviticus 16:22

“And so Jesus also suffered outside the city gate to make the people holy through His own blood.” – Hebrews 13:12

“The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship. If it could, would they not have stopped being offered? For the worshipers would have been cleansed once for all, and would no longer have felt guilty for their sins. But those sacrifices are an annual reminder of sins, because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.” – Hebrews 10:1-4

“The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, ‘Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!’” – John 1:29

“Day after day every priest stands and performs his religious duties; again and again he offers the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when this priest had offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, He sat down at the right hand of God.” – Hebrews 10:11-12

“Since the children have flesh and blood, He too shared in their humanity so that by His death He might destroy him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil...” – Hebrews 2:14

“He who does what is sinful is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil’s work.” – I John 3:8

“And having disarmed the powers and authorities, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.” – Colossians 2:15

“Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?” – I Corinthians 15:55

“The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.” – John 10:10

“For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost.” – Luke 19:10

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!” – II Corinthians 5:17

“Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” – Romans 5:1

“How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know Him.” – I John 3:1

“Being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.” – Philippians 1:6

“Yet to all who received Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God...” – John 1:12

“The work of God is this: to believe in the one He has sent.” – John 6:29
